ELITEFORCE

International DJ, renowned producer, remixer to the stars, radio jock, one-time label manager and pioneer of a genre. From forming his label "Fused and Bruised" in 1996 and releasing a steady flow of killer tracks to collaborating with other breakbeat figureheads including Meat Katie, Elite Force has been at the forefront of the tech-funk phenomenon. Tracks such as "Driving Me Crazy" (TCR) - the breaks anthem of 2004 to "Ghetto Fabulous" (Kingsize) - licensed to the Crystal Method's recent mix album, right through to his massive track with Meat Katie "The Answer feat. Roland Clark" - that made the UK National Singles Chart on vinyl sales alone, Elite Force continues to cement his position as an admired and respected rising talent in the music industry. His DJ sets are mind-blowing fusions of breaks, house, electro and techno and his eclectic style and seamless mixing have carried him everywhere from Hungary to Italy to USA to Eastern Europe, India, Turkey, Spain, Japan and China, as well as numerous festival slots including Glastonbury and the Glade. You can always check out his unique tech-funk manifesto on a fortnightly basis on www.protonradio.com.
